

Residual errors are small in percentage-point terms

Error is naturally larger for the broader mostly-dark outcome

